“Our Veterans Are Extremely Important” ... Mike Sweeney

Thursday’s Speaker

was Mike Sweeney, Lynn Veterans’ agent who spoke to us about several different situations as they affect our returning men and women in the uniformed services from several different wars in which they served.

The moving wall will be coming to Lynn in 2009, just a year from now, again after many years and he urged everyone to plan to come, see the wall, and the feelings it may inspire within you.

The wall is a replica of the giant wall of granite in Washington, D.C. but small enough in size so that it can be transported by truck to various cities and towns in America.

The wall will be at Fraser Field in August 2009. Mark your calendars!

Our $402 Pot

was a surprise to a nearly full house this week and Bob Eydenberg and Gene Hastings had the lucky tickets! And that was that.

Klinginsmith Chosen for 2010-11 RI president

Ray Klinginsmith of the Rotary Club of Kirksville, Missouri, USA, is the selection of the Nominating Committee for President of Rotary International in 2010-11. Klinginsmith will become the president-nominee on 1 October if there are no challenging candidates.

Klinginsmith earned degrees in business and law at the University of Missouri and completed graduate studies at the University of Cape Town, South Africa, as a Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholar. He was general counsel and professor of business at Northeast Missouri State University in Kirksville (now Truman State University) from 1973 until his retirement in 1995, and also held the post of dean of administration for five years.

Klinginsmith, who now operates a law office, served as an elected county commissioner from 2001 to 2004. He has been a director of the Macon Atlanta State Bank since 1971 and president of the Chariton Valley Association for Handicapped Citizens since 1982. He and his wife, Judie, have two children and three grandchildren.

"The reputation and ability of Rotarians to impact the world positively is better than ever, and the future of Rotary is bright," he says. "The RI Strategic Plan and The Rotary Foundation Future Vision Plan are good roadmaps to the future.

PEABODY IS ON THE MOVE!!!

The Rotary Club of Peabody has chosen to move to a Thursday morning breakfast club. They will be meeting weekly at The Peabody Marriott on Centennial Drive at 7:30 a.m.

Their president thanked all the club members for their input and feedback. The debate was healthy and in the end made everyone vote on what he or she believed was in the best interest of the club.

Their last lunch meeting was at Spinelli's on Tuesday, August 12th and the first breakfast meeting will be Thursday, August 21st where Mayor Bonafanti will be our guest speaker according to Stephen Morad, President

However, the decisions about the selection of strategic partners, the recruitment of younger members, and the facilitation of district change to enable younger leaders to serve as district governors will continue to require leaders of uncommon vision and wisdom."

A Rotarian since 1961, Klinginsmith has served Rotary as district governor and as chair of the 1998 Council on Legislation in New Delhi and the 2008 Los Angeles Convention Committee. He was a member of the RI Board of Directors for 1985-87 and chaired its executive committee in 1986-87. Klinginsmith joined The Rotary Foundation Trustees in 2002, serving as vice chair in 2005-06, and was a member of the Future Vision Committee from 2005 to 2008. Klinginsmith, a Major Donor, is a recipient of the Foundation's Citation for Meritorious Service and Distinguished Service Award.

In addition, Klinginsmith has earned many honors in his community, including the Parent/Caretaker Award from the Missouri Planning Council for Developmental Disabilities; the Thomas D. Cochran Award for Community Service, an annual state-wide award by the Young Lawyers Section of the Missouri Bar; and the Silver Beaver Award from the Great Rivers Council of the Boy Scouts of America, of which he is a former member of the executive board.

Klinginsmith believes that Rotary's best days are still ahead.
