Rotary Sings!

Bill Leads Us in Song !!

Rotary Years Ago

was filled with song and music and Bill Simpson showed us what it was like! A few clubs in our district still sing at each meeting but the number is getting smaller as time passes - Bill commented that today entertainment, whether singing or playing the piano is provided to us in a theatre or on a CD or DVD - not by our own efforts in our own home.

Bill had with him a talented musician, Peggy Oleson who brought her own portable electric organ! Thank you Peggy!

Our Guest Today

was Tom Lynch who will be rejoining our club! Hope you can sing, Tom !!

Our Emcee

Our Pot

is slowly growing again and has reached $107! Barbara Maitland and Dave Richardson had the lucky numbers - but got no cash as a result!

was our treasurer Virginia Doocy who did a great job of course. Thanks, Virginia! And thanks to Bob Kennedy who volunteered at the door !

OUR 15th YEAR OF RYLA AT CAMP ROTARY!

See these happy faces! Due to Sunday showers we posed our annual photograph inside in front of the fireplace Sunday afternoon.

Former Rotary Peace Fellows start their own peace studies programs

Many former Rotary Peace Fellows are at work around the world, promoting peace in their communities through education. Some are creating their own programs, aimed at achieving far-reaching goals. Among those fellows in Asia are Maria Saifuddin Effendi, Jianrong Chen, and Prakash Tewari.

Prakash Tewari, above, a former Rotary Peace Fellow, is developing a course to help New Delhi's civil servants prevent and resolve conflicts.

Acting on convictions

Maria Saifuddin Effendi is assistant professor in the Department of Peace and Conflict Studies at National Defence University in Islamabad, Pakistan. She and some of her colleagues established the department in 2009, the first of its kind in the country, in spite of opposition.

"There was criticism and resistance from [academics] to close down the department," who considered it "useless," says Effendi, a 2007-09 peace fellow at the University of Bradford in England. "But we have survived with dignity. It's a great pleasure and satisfaction seeing [the department] grow in my country."

Effendi's book, Understanding Ripeness in Kashmir, is based on the master's dissertation she wrote as a peace fellow. The book explores the South Asian region's readiness for dialogue and peacemaking to address long standing conflict.

Effendi also participates in conflict prevention/resolution symposiums and workshops sponsored by universities and nongovernmental organizations like the International Peace and Security Institute in Washington, D.C., founded by friend and former peace fellow Cameron Chisholm. These events, she says, "encourage me to work in the field of peace and for peace in Pakistan."
